Dear Parents, Guardians, and Students,

Tomorrow evening starting at 5:30PM is Highland Park High School's first ever Virtual Back to School Night. Please be sure to review student schedules in Genesis and the Zoom links attached to visit teacher's scheduled classes accordingly. Additionally, please check out our Title I presentation by Ms. Brooke Baldizzone in her Zoom room, the Teen Center Presentation, or visit our Guidance department and meet with our counselors in their Zoom room. We have also provided the YouTube link for you to watch the welcome assembly. A Honeywell message from me will be sent at 5:30PM tomorrow to welcome everyone to our virtual event.

All of the HPHS Faculty Zoom links are provided on the attached document. Please visit guidance, the administration, the Child Study Team, and the Teen Center during the evening as well, but remember, you MUST use our student hpschools.net accounts to do so.

Lastly, Outdoor fall athletics; boys and girls soccer, junior varsity football, cross country, and girls' tennis, will be played this fall following NJSIAA safety guidelines. Girls' volleyball has been postponed until the Spring. Forms and schedules can be found under the new Athletics tab on the high school website at <http://hs.hpschools.net/athletics>. Transportation will be provided for all away competitions; however, parents will be allowed to transport their child to sporting events if they choose. We look forward to our first home sporting event when our Girls Soccer team takes on South Amboy at home on October 2nd at 4PM! Spectators will be limited to 4 guests per athlete.

Enjoy the Evening!
